

PYEONGCHANG 2018

Name:

Group:

Athlete's Name:

Picture Dictionary

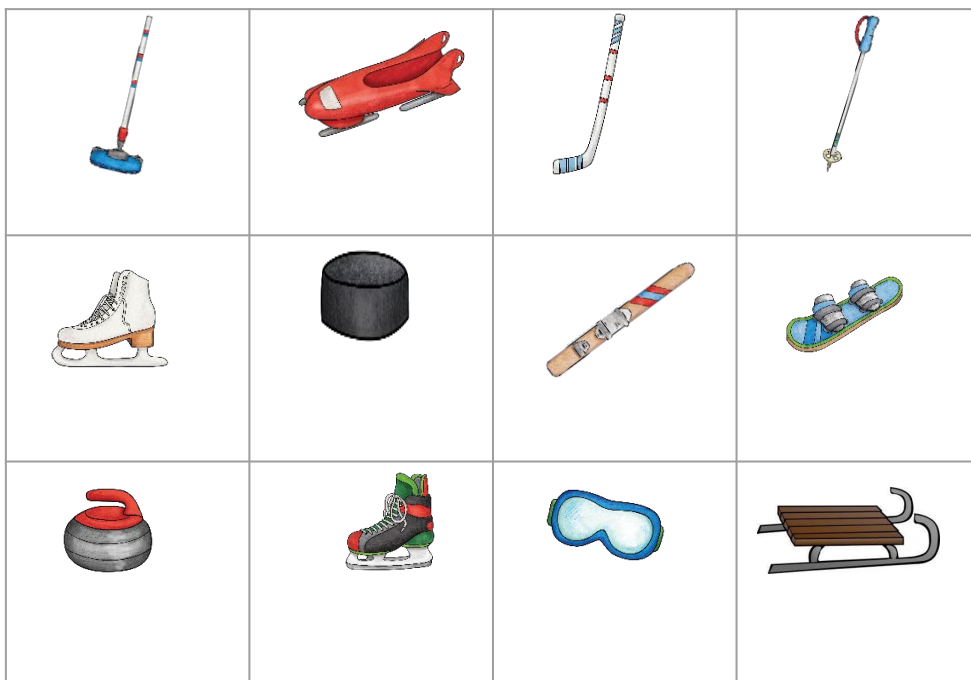

Winter Sports

Word Bank

Skeleton
 Bobsleigh
 Skiing
 Speed skating
 Biathlon
 Luge
 Curling
 Snowboarding
 Figure skating
 Cross-country
 skiing
 Ski jumping
 Hockey

Sports Equipment

Word Bank

Sleigh
 Ski pole
 Hockey stick
 Ski
 Sled
 Goggles
 Figure skates
 Hockey skates
 Broom
 Stone
 Snowboard
 Puck

Where is Pyeongchang?

South Korea

Part 1:

1. Label the capital of South Korea.
2. Label Pyeongchang.
3. Label Gangneung.

Part 2 : Complete the chart and find out where each winter sport will be played .

Pyeongchang Mountain Cluster	Gangneung Coastal Cluster

Rachel Homan

Date of Birth : April 28th,
1989

Age : 28

Height : 5'6

Home Province : Ontario

Rachel Homan is the skipper, the captain, of her curling team. Her team includes Emma Miskew, Joanne Courtney, and Lisa Weagle. Emma Miskew and Rachel Homan have been teammates since the age of 11. She led her team to the gold medal at the 2017 World's Curling Championship. It was her third appearance in the World's Curling Championship where she won a bronze and silver medal. She started curling at the age of 5 and started to compete in competitions at the age of 12. She participated in the Canada Winter games in 2007 where she won a gold medal.

Justine Dufour-Lapointe

Date of Birth : April 28th, 1989

Age : 28

Height : 5'6

Home Province : Ontario

Justine Dufour-Lapointe is the youngest of the three Dufour-Lapointe sisters (Maxime and Chloe). Justine's first Winter Olympic Games was in Sochi 2014. The sisters became the 3rd set of sisters to participate in the same individual event at the Olympic Games. She won a gold medal in freestyle skiing (moguls) and her sister, Chloe, won the silver. Chloe and Justine, with their gold and silver win, became the 3rd set of sisters to win both 1st and 2nd place in the Winter Olympic Games. She started skiing at the age of 8. Her parents gave her cookies to ski with her sisters. Justine always wears unicorn socks when she is competing. She has won two bronzes, a silver and a gold medal for freestyle skiing (moguls) in the FIS World Championships

Max Parrot

Date of Birth : June 6th,
1994

Age : 23

Height : 5'9

Home Province : Quebec

Max Parrot is from the region of Bromont, Quebec. He is the son of Alain Parrot, alpine skier and water ski jump champion. At the age of 10, Max Parrot changed from skiing to snowboarding. At the age of 16, he won 3rd place at the St-Sauveur Shakedown and it is at this moment he became a professional snowboarder. In 2014, Max participated in the Winter Olympic Games for snowboarding (slopestyle) and won 5th overall. He won a silver medal in 2015 at the X Games in Aspen. In 2016 and 2017, he won back-to-back gold medals at the X Games in Norway. He landed the first ever switch quadruple underflip in big air competition.

Alex Harvey

Date of Birth : September 7th, 1988

Age : 29

Height : 6'0

Home Province : Quebec

Alex Harvey was introduced to cross-country skiing at the age of 3. His father is the legendary cross-country skier Pierre Harvey (4- time Olympian for cross-country and cycling). Alex Harvey participated in Vancouver 2010 and Sochi 2014 Winter Olympic Games. In 2011, Alex Harvey and his teammate Devon Kershaw won a gold medal for team sprint at the World Championships. They became the first Canadian men who would to ever reach the podium for cross-country skiing. In 2013, he became the first Canadian man to win an individual medal with his bronze medal at the FIS Nordic World Ski Championships.

Kailie Humphries

Date of Birth : September 4th, 1985

Age : 32

Height : 5'6

Home Province : Alberta

Kailie Humphries is from Calgary, Alberta. She has participated in two Winter Olympic games (Vancouver 2010 and Sochi 2014) in bobsleigh. In the Vancouver 2010, Kailie and her teammate, Heather Moyse, won a gold medal. They became the first Canadian bobsleigh team to ever win gold. In Sochi 2014, they won a gold medal by winning by .10 of a second. Kailie and Heather were named the flag bearers for the Sochi closing ceremonies. Kailie Humphries was named the 2014 winner of the Lou Marsh award as Canadian athlete of the year.

Charles Hamelin

Date of Birth : April 14th,
1984

Age : 33

Height : 5'7

Home Province : Quebec

Charles Hamelin is from Ste-Julie, Quebec. Charles Hamelin first sport was baseball but got into speed skating at the age of 9 after seeing it and thinking it looked cool. His little brother, Francois Hamelin, will also be participating in the PyeongChang Winter games. He is participating in his 4th Olympic Games. His first Olympic Games were Turin 2006. He has won 4 Olympic medals, three gold medals and one silver. He is the most decorated, has the most medals, male Winter Olympian for Team Canada. In the 2016-17 season, he won 32 championship titles including 9 gold medals.

Marie-Philip Poulin

Date of Birth : March 28th, 1991

Age : 27

Height : 5'5

Home Province : Quebec

Marie-Philip Poulin is from Beauceville, Quebec. She joined the national team program in 2007 and has been on the team ever since. She has been in three Olympic Winter Games : Vancouver, Sochi, and PyeongChang. She was only 18 years old during the Vancouver Olympics in 2010 where she scored the two goals in the gold medal match against the USA. In Sochi, she was Canada's leading scorer with three goals and two assists. One of these goals led to the team tying the game in the last minute of the Gold Medal game against USA and would again score the winning goal to give Canada their 4th straight Olympic Gold medal. She was nominated captain of the women's hockey team for the national team in PyeongChang.

Marianne St-Gelais

Date of Birth : February 17th,
1990

Age : 28

Height : 5'3"

Home Province : Quebec

Marianne St-Gelais is one of the best 500m short track speed skaters in the world and was ranked 1st in the 2016-17 season in the 500 metres. In 2009, she started skating in the senior competitions for Team Canada after a successful junior career and winning a gold medal in the the 2009 Junior World Championships. She participated in the Vancouver and Sochi Olympic Games and will be going to her third Olympics in PyeongChang. In Vancouver, she won two silver medals in the 500 m and the 1000m. In Sotchi, she would win another silver medal as part of the 3000m relay team.

Mark McMorris

Date of Birth :December 9th, 1993

Age : 25

Height : 5'9

Home Province : Saskatchewan

Mark McMorris is a snowboarder from Regina, Saskatchewan. He is always looking to improve snowboarding and in 2011 he did just that by being the first snowboarder to land a backside triple cork 1440. He was part of Team Canada in the Sochi Games in 2014. Two weeks before Sochi, McMorris would break his ribs in the X Games in Aspen. He snowboarded through pain and would go on and win an Olympic bronze medal. In March 2017, McMorris would suffer a horrific accident while snowboarding in the mountains. He fractured his jaw, left arm, pelvis, ribs, ruptured spleen and collapsed lung; however, this will not stop McMorris for going to his second Olympic Games in PyeongChang.

Alex Gough

Date of Birth : May 12th, 1987

Age : 31

Height : 5'6"

Home Province : Quebec

Alex Gough is a veteran member of Canada's luge team and was part of the national team in both the Vancouver and Sochi Olympic Games. She competes in singles and in the team relay. In 2011, she became the first Canadian luger to win a gold medal at the World Cup Race breaking a 105-race streak held by the Germans. She is currently ranked in the top 5 female lugers in the world. In 2014, she finished 4th in the singles event which is the best any Canadian Luger has done before. She would participate in the relay team event where the Canadian team would place 4th. She is working on improving the sport and making Canada one of the best in luge.

Mikael Kingsbury

Date of Birth : July 24th, 1992

Age : 25

Height : 5'7"

Home Province : Quebec

Mikael Kingsbury is a freestyle mogul skier for team Canada. In 2010 at the Vancouver Olympics, Mikael witnessed Alexandre Bilodeau win a gold medal. After the games, Mikael was inspired and competed in the FIS World Cup 2010 where he won Rookie of the Year. The following season, he went on to win 13 World Cup medals (8 gold, 4 silver, and 1 bronze) and won the Crystal Globe as the overall World Cup champion. He was just under 20 years old making him the youngest to win the Crystal Globe. In 2014, Mikael Kingsbury competed in the Sochi Olympic Games where he won a silver medal behind Alexandre Bilodeau.

Tessa Virtue

Date of Birth : May 17th, 1989

Age : 29

Height : 5'4"

Home Province : Ontario

Tessa Virtue and her partner, Scott Moir, have been competing together since they were little children in Ontario. Tessa and Scott would make their Olympic debut in 2010 at the Vancouver Winter Games. At the Vancouver Games, Scott and Tessa went on to win a gold medal making them the youngest ice dancing partners to win a gold medal. Tessa was 20 years old at the time. Tessa competed with a leg injury which made walking very painful. In the fall of 2010, she had surgery on her leg to relieve some pain. Scott and Tessa competed again in Sochi, in 2014, where they won two silver medals (team and ice dancing). In 2016, they moved their training base to Montreal under their new coaches Marie-France Dubreuil and Patrice Lauzon.

Scott Moir

Date of Birth : September 22nd, 1987

Age : 30

Height : 5'7

Home Province : Ontario

Scott Moir and his partner, Tessa Virtue, have been competing together since they were little children in Ontario. Tessa and Scott would make their Olympic debut in 2010 at the Vancouver Winter Games. At the Vancouver Games, Scott and Tessa went on to win a gold medal making them the youngest ice dancing partners to win a gold medal. Scott was 22 years old at the time. Scott and Tessa competed again in Sochi, in 2014, where they won two silver medals (team and ice dancing). In 2016, they moved their training base to Montreal under their new coaches Marie-France Dubreuil and Patrice Lauzon. They were undefeated in the 2016-17 competing season. They will be competing again in PyeongChang.

My Athlete

Image/Picture

Biographical Information

Image/Picture

About their sport

My Athlete

Image/Picture

How many Olympics have they done?

Image/Picture

How many medals/awards have they won?

My Athlete

Image/Picture

Other famous athletes

Image/Picture

Other countries competing in the sport